The 4-step listening method

#	Step

3	Shadow: pause after each sentence and repeat it with the same sound and speed.
4	Listen again without the text. You will understand much more!

> Too fast? On YouTube tap ⚙ Settings → Playback speed → 0.75 and turn on English subtitles (CC) — not Arabic. After Weeks 4, 8 and 12 there is a Progress Check: score 16/20 or more to move on.

Grammar of the week

Present simple = habits, routines and facts (I work in a bank. I usually take the metro.)

Present continuous = now, around now and temporary situations (I'm working from home this week.)

State verbs (know, understand, believe, remember, need, want, like, love, belong, mean) are not usually continuous: I know (NOT I'm knowing).

	Present simple	Present continuous
Use	habits, routines, facts	now, these days, temporary situations
Example	I work in Giza.	I'm working in Alexandria this month.
Time words	usually, every day, on Fridays	now, at the moment, these days, this week

State verbs (no -ing)	Examples
Thinking	know, understand, believe, remember, mean
Feelings	like, love, hate, want, prefer
Having	have (= own), belong to, need

في العربية نقول «أشتغل» للعادة اليومية وللفترة الحالية، لذلك يخلط المتعلم العربي بين الزمنين. استخدم المضارع البسيط للعادة والحقيقة (I work in a bank)، والمضارع المستمر لما يحدث الآن أو في فترة مؤقتة (I'm working from home this week). والخطأ الأشهر: I am knowing و I am understanding — أفعال الحالة (التفكير والمشاعر والملكية) لا تأتي غالبًا بـ ing، فقل: I know و I understand.

have can be continuous when it is an action: I'm having lunch (= eating). But: I have a car (NOT I'm having a car).

think: I think it's a good idea (opinion → simple) · I'm thinking about my future (action → continuous).

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Choose the correct form.

1) My father (is working / works) in a bank.
2) Be quiet! The baby (is sleeping / sleeps).
3) We usually (go / are going) to Alexandria in the summer.
4) This week Mona (stays / is staying) with her aunt in Luxor.
5) Ahmed (isn't eating / doesn't eat) meat. He's a vegetarian.
6) Look! Those men (are fixing / fix) the road.

4) علاقتي جيدة بجيراني.
5) هل تحتاج إلى مساعدة؟

Write & Speak — "Me these days": write 80–100 words about yourself. Say what you are like, what you usually do and what you are doing these days. Use both present tenses. Then talk about yourself for one minute without reading.

Example: My name is Ahmed and I'm 28. I grew up in Giza, but now I live in New Cairo with my wife. I'm an accountant and I work for a big company. I'm quite shy, but I'm friendly and hard-working. I usually get up at six and take the metro to work. In my spare time, I play football or read. These days I'm very busy, because I'm taking an online English course in the evenings. I'm also looking for a bigger flat, because we need more space. In my opinion, English is very important for my future.

9	What were you doing when I called you?	ماذا كنت تفعل عندما اتصلت بك؟
10	It was an amazing experience.	كانت تجربة مذهلة.

Grammar of the week

Past continuous = was / were + verb-ing: a longer action in progress in the past (At eight o'clock I was driving.)

Past simple = a short, finished action (My phone rang.)

Together: I was driving when my phone rang. · While I was driving, my phone rang.

Positive	Negative	Question
I / He / She was walking.	I / He / She wasn't walking.	Was she walking?
You / We / They were walking.	You / We / They weren't walking.	Were they walking?

Pattern	Example
past continuous + when + past simple	We were having dinner when the lights went out.
While + past continuous, past simple	While I was walking home, I saw an accident.
past simple + past simple (one after the other)	I opened the door and went in.

الماضي المستمر يشبه قولنا «كنت باعمل كذا»: حدث طويل كان مستمرًا في الماضي، ثم قطعه حدث قصير بالماضي البسيط. الخطأ الشائع عند المتعلم العربي: استخدام الماضي البسيط للحدثين (I drove when my phone rang)، أو نسيان was / were (I driving ✗). تذكّر: بعد while يأتي غالبًا الحدث الطويل (was / were + ing)، وبعد when يأتي غالبًا الحدث القصير (الماضي البسيط).

Put a comma after the first part when you start with While or When: While I was cooking, the phone rang.

State verbs are not continuous here either: I knew him (NOT I was knowing him).

3) What ___ you doing at ten o'clock?

4) When I ___ (arrive), they ___ (have) lunch.
5) He ___ (meet) his wife while he ___ (work) in Dubai.
6) What ___ you ___ (do) when the accident ___ (happen)?

Exercise 3 · Join the sentences with when or while.

1) I was cooking. The phone rang. (when)
2) We were walking in the market. We met Omar. (while)
3) They were sleeping. The plane landed. (when)
4) I was taking photos. I lost my sunglasses. (while)
5) She was talking to the receptionist. Her taxi arrived. (when)

Exercise 4 · Translate into English.

1) كنت أنتظر الحافلة عندما رأيت حادثًا.

2) بينما كنا نزور الأهرامات، التقطنا صورًا كثيرة.

3) فاتتني الطائرة لأن المرور كان سيئًا جدًا.

4) ماذا كنتم تفعلون في الساعة الثامنة مساء أمس؟

Write & Speak — “A journey I remember”: write 80–100 words about a trip. Say where you went, what happened and how you felt. Use the past continuous and the past simple with when and while. Then tell the story aloud without reading.

Example: Last winter my family and I went to Aswan by train. The journey took twelve hours, but it was fun. On the second day, we were sailing on the Nile when suddenly the boat stopped. The boatman couldn't fix the engine, so we waited for an hour. While we were waiting, a Nubian boy sang songs for us. In the end, another boat came and took us to a Nubian village. We had lunch there and I bought some souvenirs for my friends. It was an amazing experience, and I want to go back next year.

Grammar of the week

Short adjectives: + -er than / the + -est (cheap → cheaper than → the cheapest)

Long adjectives: more … than / the most … (modern → more modern than → the most modern) as + adjective + as = the same · not as … as = less

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
cheap	cheaper than	the cheapest big	bigger than	the biggest noisy	noisier than	the noisiest
modern	more modern than	the most modern polluted	more polluted than	the most polluted
good	better than	the best
bad	worse than	the worst
far	further than	the furthest

في العربية نقول «أكبر من» بكلمة واحدة، فيقع المتعلم في خطأين: more bigger (الجمع بين الطريقتين)، أو استخدام from بدل than (bigger from Cairo ✗). القاعدة: الصفة القصيرة تأخذ -er، والطويلة تأخذ more، ولا نجمع بينهما أبدًا، وبعد المقارنة نستخدم than. ومع صيغة التفضيل العليا لا تنسَ the: the biggest city.

One syllable ending in consonant + vowel + consonant: double the last letter (big → bigger, hot → hottest). Adjectives ending in -y: -ier / -iest (busy → busier → the busiest).

Use much, a lot or a bit before a comparative: much cheaper, a bit quieter.

as … as: Aswan is as hot as Luxor in summer. · Tanta isn't as big as Cairo.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Write the comparative and the superlative.

1) cheap
2) hot
3) busy
4) modern
5) good
6) bad
7) peaceful
8) crowded

Exercise 2 · Complete with the correct form of the adjective.

1) The metro is ___ (fast) than the bus.
2) Cairo is the ___ (big) city in Egypt.
3) Is the rent in Zamalek ___ (expensive) than in Shubra?
4) Today the traffic is ___ (bad) than yesterday.

2) Alexandria is smaller than Cairo. (not as big as)

3) The bus is slower than the metro. (not as fast as)

Write & Speak — "Two places": write 80–100 words comparing your city or town with another place you know. Use comparatives, superlatives and (not) as ... as. Then say it aloud as if you are talking to a tourist.

Example: I live in Cairo, but my grandparents live in Mansoura. Cairo is much bigger and more exciting than Mansoura. It has the best shopping centres and some of the most historic places in Egypt. However, it is also noisier and more polluted, and the traffic in the rush hour is terrible. Mansoura isn't as crowded as Cairo, and the cost of living there is lower. The rent is cheaper and, in my opinion, the people are friendlier. Cairo is better for work, but Mansoura is more peaceful. One day I want to live in a quiet place near the sea.

be going to + verb = a plan or intention (I'm going to learn to drive.) / a prediction from what you can see now (Look! It's going to rain.)

will + verb	prediction / opinion (I think ...)	I think it will be a great party.
will + verb	decision at the moment of speaking	It's cold. I'll close the window.

العربي يستخدم «سـ / سوف / هـ» لكل أنواع المستقبل، فيستخدم will في كل شيء: I will meet Omar tomorrow at six. (والأفضل: I'm meeting Omar...). الترتيب المتفق عليه مع شخص آخر في وقت ومكان محددين = المضارع المستمر، والخطة أو النية = going to، والتوقع أو الرأي أو القرار اللحظي = will. ولا تقل I will going ولا I'm going to going.

Say I don't think ... will (NOT I think ... won't): I don't think he'll come.

With go and come we usually use the present continuous, not going to go / going to come: I'm going to Luxor tomorrow. · Are you coming to the party?

Grammar of the week

Present perfect = have / has + past participle (been, seen, eaten, tried ...)

Use it for life experiences when we don't say when: I've visited Luxor. · Have you ever ridden a camel? · She's never tried sushi.

When you say WHEN, use the past simple: I visited Luxor in 2023.

Positive	Negative	Question	Short answer
I / You / We / They have ('ve) seen it.	I haven't seen it. / I've never seen it.	Have you ever seen it?	Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
He / She has ('s) seen it.	He hasn't seen it. / He's never seen it.	Has she ever seen it?	Yes, she has. / No, she hasn't.

been	gone
He has been to Luxor. = He went there and came back.	He has gone to Luxor. = He is there now.

لا يوجد في العربية زمن مثل present perfect؛ فنقول «زرت الأقصر» سواء ذكرنا الوقت أم لم نذكره. في الإنجليزية: التجربة في حياتك بدون وقت محدد = have / has + التصريف الثالث، ومع ذكر الوقت (last year, in 2020) = الماضي البسيط. أخطاء شائعة: Did you ever ...? بدل Have you ever ...?، و I have went بدل I have gone، و I have been to Luxor last year ✗.

Regular verbs: the past participle = the past simple (visit → visited → visited). Irregular verbs: learn the third form (see → saw → seen).

ever goes before the participle in questions (Have you ever eaten ...?). never goes before the participle (I've never eaten ...) — don't use not with never.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Write the past participle.

1) go
2) see
3) eat
4) fly
5) win
6) ride
7) break
8) try

Exercise 2 · Complete with the present perfect.

5) We ___ never ___ (see) snow.
6) She ___ (be) to Siwa three times.

Exercise 3 · Present perfect or past simple? Choose.

1) I (have been / went) to Hurghada last summer.
2) (Did you ever try / Have you ever tried) diving?

1) هل سبق لك أن زرت الأقصر؟
2) لم يسبق لي أن ركبت منطادًا.
3) سافرت أختي إلى الخارج مرات كثيرة.

Write & Speak — "Things I've done": write 80–100 words about your life experiences: three things you have done and two things you have never done but want to do. For one experience, say when it happened and how it was (past simple). Then ask a friend five "Have you ever ...?" questions.

Example: I have done some exciting things in my life. I've been to Aswan twice and I've ridden a camel near the Pyramids. I've also climbed Mount Sinai. I did it in 2021 with my friends. We started at midnight and watched the sunrise from the top. It was hard, but it was unforgettable. However, I've never flown in a plane and I've never been abroad. I'd love to visit Turkey one day. I've also never tried diving, but I want to try it in Dahab next summer.

Grammar of the week

Present perfect = a past action connected to now, with no finished time (I've lost my keys. = I don't have them now.)

just = a very short time ago · already = before now, sooner than expected · yet = until now (in negatives and questions, at the end)

Past simple = a finished time: yesterday, last week, in 2020, two days ago, When ...?

Word	Position	Example
just	between have and the participle	I've just seen Mona.
already	between have and the participle	We've already eaten.
yet	end of a negative sentence	I haven't finished yet.
yet	end of a question	Have you finished yet?

Present perfect (no finished time)	Past simple (finished time)
I've lost my wallet.	I lost my wallet yesterday.
Have you seen the news today?	Did you see the news last night?
Prices have gone up recently.	Prices went up two months ago.

المتعلم العربي يقول «لسه واصل» بالماضي البسيط: I just arrived (وهذا شائع في الإنجليزية الأمريكية)، لكن في الإنجليزية البريطانية نقول I've just arrived. والخطأ الأكبر: استخدام present perfect مع كلمة تدل على وقت منتهٍ مثل yesterday أو ago أو last: I saw him yesterday ✗ → I have seen him yesterday ✔. وانتبه لمكان الكلمات: just و already قبل التصريف الثالث، و yet في آخر الجملة.

Questions with When ...? and What time ...? take the past simple: When did you hear the news? (NOT When have you heard ...?)

News often starts with the present perfect, then gives the details in the past simple: There has been an accident on the Ring Road. It happened at 8 a.m.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Put the word in the correct place.

1) I've finished my homework. (already)
2) Have you called your mother? (yet)
3) Ahmed has left. (just)
4) We haven't decided. (yet)
5) The film has started. (already)
6) She has got engaged. (just)

Exercise 2 · Present perfect or past simple? Complete.

1) I ___ (see) Omar yesterday.
2) ___ you ever ___ (be) on TV?
3) Prices ___ (go up) a lot this year.
4) The accident ___ (happen) two hours ago.
5) When ___ you ___ (move) house?
6) My brother ___ just ___ (pass) his exams.

Exercise 3 · Match the news with a reaction. Use each reaction once: a) I'm sorry to hear that. b) What a pity! c) Congratulations! d) That's great news! e) Really? I can't believe it!

1) I've just got a new job.

2) My grandfather is in hospital.

3) The airport has just announced that our flight is on time!

Exercise 4 · Translate into English.

1) لقد وصلت للتو.

3) لم أجد وظيفة بعد.

Write & Speak — "My news": write an email of 80–100 words to a friend you haven't seen for a long time. Give three pieces of news (use just, already and yet) and add details in the past simple. Then read it aloud as if you are telling your friend on the phone.

Example: Dear Mona, How are you? I'm sorry I haven't written for so long. I've been very busy, and I have lots of news! First, we've just moved house. We left our old flat in Shubra two weeks ago and now we live in Sheikh Zayed. Also, my brother has got engaged! The party was last Friday and it was wonderful. I've also started a new job, but I haven't met all my colleagues yet. Have you finished your exams yet? Write soon and tell me your news. Love, Nour

10	You don't have to come early, but you mustn't be late.	ليس من الضروري أن تأتي مبكرًا، لكن يجب ألّا تتأخر.

Grammar of the week

must / have to + verb = it is necessary (You must / have to wear a seatbelt.)

mustn't = it is not allowed (You mustn't smoke here.)

don't have to = it is not necessary; you can choose (You don't have to wear a suit.)

Past: had to (I had to work late.) — must has no past form.

	Positive	Negative	Question	Past
must	You must stop.	You mustn't park here. (= not allowed)	Must I ...? (formal)	had to have to	I have to go. / She has to go.	You don't have to pay. (= not necessary)	Do I have to ...? / Does she have to ...?	had to / didn't have to أكبر خطأ: الظن أن mustn't و don't have to بمعنى واحد! mustn't = ممنوع (لا تفعل)، أما don't have to = مش لازم (براحتك).

ومن الأخطاء أيضًا: must to go ✗ (بعد must فعل مجرد بدون to)، و He have to ✗ (الصحيح He has to). و must غالبًا قاعدة رسمية أو رأي المتكلم نفسه، و have to التزام من الخارج (قانون، مدير، ظروف).

must + verb without to: You must call (NOT must to call). have to always has to.

For the past, use had to / didn't have to: I didn't have to wear a uniform at my old school.

We mustn't eat or drink behind the counter, and we mustn't sell some medicines without a prescription. We don't have to work every Friday, because we take turns. Grammar of the week much + uncountable (much salt) · many + countable (many eggs) — mostly in negatives and questions a lot of / lots of + both, especially in positive sentences

a few + countable (a few times) · a little + uncountable (a little oil)

too + adjective (too hot) · too much / too many + noun · adjective + enough (fit enough) · enough + noun (enough sleep)

	Countable (eggs, people)	Uncountable (water, salt)
a big quantity	many / a lot of	much / a lot of a small quantity	a few	a little more than is good	too many	too much less than you need	not enough eggs	not enough water

Pattern	Example
too + adjective	The soup is too salty.
adjective + enough	He's old enough to drive.
enough + noun	We don't have enough time.
too + adjective + to + verb	It's too hot to go jogging.

يترجم العربي «جدًا» دائمًا إلى too، فيقول ✗ The food is too delicious. الصحيح very delicious؛ لأن too معناها «أكثر من اللازم» وفيها مشكلة. وانتبه لمكان enough: يأتي بعد الصفة (old enough) وقبل الاسم (enough money)، فلا تقل ✗ old enough ولا تقل many water أو much eggs: much مع غير المعدود، و many مع المعدود.

very = a lot (good or bad): The food is very good. too = more than is good: The food is too spicy for me.

a few / a little = some (positive). few / little without a = almost none (negative): I have few friends here.

Example: I think my lifestyle is quite healthy, but it isn't perfect. I eat a lot of vegetables and a little fruit every day, and I drink plenty of water. However, I drink too many cups of tea, and I put too much sugar in them. I don't get enough exercise, because I work long hours, and I only walk a few times a week. Grammar of the week

First conditional: If + present simple, will + verb — a real possibility in the future

If it rains, we'll stay at home. · We'll stay at home if it rains.

when / as soon as + present simple for things that are sure to happen: I'll call you when I arrive.

if / when part (present simple)	result (will / won't + verb)
If you leave now,	you'll catch the bus.
If it doesn't work,	I'll take it back to the shop.
When I get paid,	I'll buy a new phone.
As soon as the plumber arrives,	I'll call you.
Unless you hurry (= If you don't hurry),	you'll be late.

لأننا نقول بالعربية «لو هتمطر هنقعد في البيت»، يضع المتعلم will بعد if: If it will rain ✗. القاعدة: بعد if و when و as soon as و unless نستخدم المضارع البسيط حتى لو كان المعنى مستقبلًا، ونضع will في الجزء الآخر فقط. وإذا بدأت الجملة بـ if فضع فاصلة بين الجزأين. if = ممكن يحدث، أما when = متأكد أنه سيحدث.

The result can also be can, should or an order: If you feel ill, you should see a doctor. · If you see Omar, tell him to call me.

unless = if ... not. Don't add not after unless: Unless you hurry ... (NOT Unless you don't hurry ...).

1) If you ___ (press) this button, the machine ___ (start).
2) If it ___ (not stop) raining, we ___ (stay) at home.

3) إذا لم تتصل بالكهربائي، لن تعمل الأنوار.
4) عندما أصل إلى المكتب، سأرسل لك البريد الإلكتروني.

Write & Speak — "A problem at home": write an email of 80–100 words to a shop or a landlord about a problem. Explain what happened (past simple), ask for a solution, and say what you will do if they don't help (first conditional). Then role-play the phone call with a friend.

Example: Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to complain about the washing machine I bought from your shop in Nasr City two weeks ago. Yesterday it stopped working in the middle of a wash, and there was a big leak in my kitchen. The machine is still under guarantee, so I would like you to repair or replace it as soon as possible. If nobody comes this week, I will ask for a full refund. Please call me when your technician is available. Yours faithfully, Mona Adel verb + -ing: enjoy, like, love, hate, mind, finish, keep, practise, avoid, can't stand, spend time verb + to + verb: want, would like, decide, hope, plan, agree, offer, manage, refuse, afford, learn after a preposition, use -ing: interested in learning, good at drawing, before going

verb + -ing	verb + to + verb

She finished cooking.	She decided to cook.
Do you mind waiting?	Would you like to wait?
He keeps forgetting.	He managed to remember.
They avoid driving at night.	They refused to drive at night.

في العربية نقول «أحب أن أسبح» و«أستمتع بالسباحة»، ولا توجد قاعدة ثابتة تساعدنا، لذلك يقول المتعلم I enjoy to swim ✗ أو I want going ✗. الحل: احفظ كل فعل مع النمط الذي يليه كأنهما كلمة واحدة: enjoy + ing و want + to. وبعد حروف الجر (in, at, about, of, before, after) يأتي الفعل دائمًا بـ ing: I'm interested in joining ...

like / love / hate / prefer can take both: I like swimming. / I like to swim. But would like always takes to: I'd like to swim.

Negative: I decided not to go. · I enjoy not working on Fridays.

I enjoy walking around old Cairo and taking pictures of people and buildings. I usually avoid going out at midday, because the light is too strong. Last year I decided to join a photography club in Zamalek, and I managed to win a small competition! In the future, I'd like to take photos of the White Desert, and I hope to have my own exhibition one day.

Grammar of the week

Relative clauses give more information about a noun.

who / that = people · which / that = things · where = places

The woman who works with me … · The phone which / that I bought … · The café where we met …

Word	For	Example
who	people	She's the doctor who helped my father.
which	things / animals	It's a phone which takes great photos.
that	people or things	The man that I met … / The film that we saw …
where	places	That's the school where I studied.

في العربية نكرر الضمير بعد «الذي»: «الكتاب الذي قرأتُه» (الهاء)، فيقول المتعلم ✗ The book which I read it. في الإنجليزية لا نكرر الضمير: The book which I read. وأيضًا: لا تستخدم which مع الأشخاص (✗ the man which)، واستخدم where للأماكن عندما يأتي بعدها فاعل وفعل: the city where I was born.

When who / which / that is the object, you can leave it out: The film (that) we saw was great. But not when it is the subject: The man who lives here … (NOT The man lives here …).

Don't repeat the pronoun or the place: The village where I grew up (NOT where I grew up there).

Grammar of the week

used to + verb = past habits or states that are not true now (I used to live in Tanta. = I don't live there now.)

Negative: didn't use to · Question: Did you use to ...?

Subject questions: when Who or What is the subject, don't use do / does / did: Who called you? (NOT Who did call you?) · What happened?

Positive	Negative	Question
I used to walk to school.	I didn't use to walk to school.	Did you use to walk to school?
She used to be shy.	She didn't use to like tea.	Did she use to work here?

Object question (with do / did)	Subject question (no do / did)
Who did you call? → I called Omar.	Who called you? → Omar called me.
What did Mona say? → She said hello.	What happened? → The car broke down.
Which bus do you take? → I take the 12.	Which bus goes to Giza? → The 12 goes to Giza.

نعبّر بالعربية عن عادات الماضي بكلمة «كان»: «كنت ألعب»، فيترجمها المتعلم ✗ I was play أو I was playing (وهذا حدث مستمر في لحظة معينة وليس عادة). للعادة التي انتهت استخدم used to + فعل مجرد. وانتبه: بعد did و didn't نكتب use to بدون d. وفي الأسئلة عن الفاعل (مَن فعل؟ ماذا حدث؟) لا نستخدم did: Who broke the window? وليس Who did break the window?

used to is only for the past. For present habits, use the present simple with usually: I usually walk to work (NOT I use to walk).

Don't use used to with a number of times: I visited Luxor three times (NOT I used to visit Luxor three times).

Example: When I was a child, my life was very different. My family used to live in a small flat in Shubra. I didn't use to have a phone or a computer. I used to play football in the street and watch cartoons in the afternoon. My mother used to give me five pounds pocket money every week, and I felt rich! Nowadays I live in 6th of October City and I work in a bank. I no longer play in the street; I go to the gym instead. Life is easier now, but sometimes I miss the old days.
