Grammar of the week

have / has + been + verb-ing = an action that started in the past and is still going on now (or has just stopped).

for + a period of time (for three years) · since + a starting point (since 2019) · How long have you been...?

Positive	Negative	Question
I / You / We / They have been working. He / She has been working.	I haven't been sleeping well. She hasn't been feeling well.	Have you been waiting long? How long has she been working here?

for + a period	since + a starting point for ten minutes · for two years · for a long time	since 9 o'clock · since 2019 · since I was a child

في العربية نقول «أنا أعمل هنا منذ خمس سنوات» بالمضارع، فيقول كثير من المتعلمين: ✗ I am working here since five years. لكن الإنجليزية تستخدم هنا المضارع التام المستمر: ✓ I have been working here for five years. واستخدم for مع المدة (لمدة / بقاله...) و since مع نقطة البداية (منذ يناير، منذ ٢٠٢٠). والسؤال «بقالك قد إيه...؟» = How long have you been...?

× I am working here since 2020. ✓ I have been working here since 2020.

State verbs (know, like, want, have = own) use the present perfect simple: I've known Mona for ten years (not I've been knowing).

Use it for an action that has just stopped when you can see the result: Your eyes are red! — I've been working on the computer all day.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Complete with for or since.

1) She has been waiting ___ twenty minutes.
2) I've been living in Giza ___ 2015.
3) They've been working here ___ March.
4) It has been raining ___ this morning.
5) We've been learning English ___ three months.
6) Mona has been teaching ___ a long time.
7) He has been driving ___ he was eighteen.
8) I've been reading this book ___ a week.

Exercise 2 · Complete with the present perfect continuous.

1) I ___ (work) on this report all morning.
2) How long ___ you ___ (study) English?
3) She ___ (not feel) well lately.
4) They ___ (look) for a new flat since June.
5) Ahmed ___ (run) — that's why he's so hot.
6) What ___ you ___ (do) since you left university?

Exercise 3 · Correct the mistake.

1) I am working here since 2019.
2) How long are you waiting?
3) She has been knowing him for years.
4) We have been living in Cairo since five years.
5) He have been working overtime.

Exercise 4 · Translate into English.

1) منذ متى وأنت تعمل في هذه الشركة؟
2) أبحث عن وظيفة منذ ثلاثة أشهر.
3) رفض أخي العرض لأن الراتب كان منخفضًا.
4) أنا متعب لأنني أعمل طوال اليوم.

Write & Speak — “My working life”: write 120–150 words about your job (or the job you want). Say how long you have been doing it, what you have been doing lately, and what you like and don't like about it. Then record yourself reading it and check every for and since.

Example: My name is Mona and I'm an accountant. I have been working for a small software company in New Cairo for four years. Before that, I worked part-time in a bank while I was studying at university. My job is quite interesting, but the workload is heavy. Every month we have to meet tight deadlines, so I sometimes work overtime. Lately I have been learning a new accounting program, and I have been taking an online English course in the evenings, because our company has started working with clients in Dubai and London. I get on well with my colleagues, and my manager is very fair. Last year I got a pay rise, and I hope to get promoted soon. One day, I would like to set up my own business and take on two or three young accountants.

10	According to the article, the police are still looking for the suspect.	وفقًا للمقال، ما زالت الشرطة تبحث عن المشتبه به.

Grammar of the week

To tell a story we use three tenses:

past simple = the main events (he ran away) · past continuous = the background (it was raining) · past perfect (had + past participle) = something that happened BEFORE another past event (the train had left).

Tense	Form	Use	Example
Past simple	verb + -ed / irregular	main events, one after another	He saw the police and ran away.
Past continuous	was / were + -ing	background, an action in progress	I was walking home when it started to rain.
Past perfect	had + past participle	an earlier past action	When I got there, the shop had closed.

«كان قد + فعل» في العربية = had + التصريف الثالث في الإنجليزية: كان القطار قد غادر = The train had left. أكثر خطأين: استخدام الماضي البسيط لكل شيء (✗ When I arrived, the film already started)، أو استخدام had مع التصريف الثاني (✗ I had went). استخدم الماضي التام فقط عندما ترجع بالقصة إلى حدث أقدم.

× When I arrived, the film already started. ✓ When I arrived, the film had already started.

When the police arrived, the thieves ran away. (= after the police came) · When the police arrived, the thieves had run away. (= before the police came)

Negative: hadn't + past participle (I hadn't eaten). Question: Had you met her before?

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Choose the correct answer.

1) I (walked / was walking) home when I saw the accident.
2) When we arrived, the match (already started / had already started).
3) She (was reading / had read) the news when the lights went out.
4) They (didn't / hadn't) eaten anything all day, so they were very hungry.
5) As soon as he saw the police, he (ran / was running) away.
6) By the time I noticed, someone (stole / had stolen) my wallet.

Exercise 2 · Complete with the past perfect.

1) By the time I got to the bank, it ___ (close).
2) She was upset because she ___ (fail) her exam.
3) We ___ never ___ (see) snow before we went to Europe.
4) When we got home, we saw that the burglar ___ (break) the window to get in.
5) I ___ (not finish) my work when my manager called.
6) ___ you ___ (meet) her before the party?

Exercise 3 · Join the sentences with the word in brackets.

1) I was cooking. The phone rang. (while)
2) He finished his homework. Then he went out. (after)
3) We got to the station. The train left before that. (by the time)
4) She saw the police. She ran away immediately. (as soon as)
5) I was walking in the street. I met an old friend. (when)

Exercise 4 · Translate into English.

1) بينما كنت أقود السيارة، رأيت حادثًا.
2) عندما وصلنا، كان الفيلم قد بدأ.
3) قبضت الشرطة على اللص أمس.
4) لم أكن قد زرت الأقصر من قبل.

Write & Speak — Write a short news story (120–150 words) about something surprising that happened — real or imagined. Use the past continuous for the background, the past simple for the main events and the past perfect for earlier events. Then tell the story aloud like a news reporter.

Example: Last Thursday evening, Ahmed Samir, a 32-year-old engineer from Nasr City, had a very strange experience. He was sitting in a café in Downtown Cairo and chatting with a friend when a young man grabbed his phone from the table and ran away. Ahmed chased him down the street, but the thief had already disappeared into the crowd. Luckily, a woman at the next table had filmed everything on her phone. She shared the video online and it went viral in a few hours. Thousands of people commented, and some of them recognised the thief. The next morning, the police arrested a 19-year-old suspect near Ramses Station. He had stolen four other phones in the same week. In the end, Ahmed got his phone back. "I had almost given up," he said, "but social media helped me."

Grammar of the week

will = a prediction or a decision you make now · going to = a plan, or a prediction you can see now · might / may = it's possible (about 50%).

After when, as soon as, before, after, until and if we use the PRESENT simple, not will.

How sure?	Positive	Negative
100%	It will definitely rain.	It definitely won't rain.
80%	It will probably rain.	It probably won't rain.
50%	It might / may rain.	It might not / may not rain.

Time clause (present simple)	Main clause (will / won't)
When I get home,	I'll call you.
As soon as the rain stops,	we'll go out.
Until everyone helps,	nothing will change.

في العربية نقول «عندما سأصل سأتصل بك»، فيكتب كثير من المتعلمين: ✗ When I will arrive, I'll call you. لكن بعد when / as نستخدم المضارع البسيط حتى لو المعنى مستقبل: ✓ When I arrive, I'll call you. وتذكّر: might و may = «ربما / من الممكن»، وبعدهما الفعل في المصدر بدون to.

× When I will finish, I'll call you. ✓ When I finish, I'll call you.

probably comes after will but before won't: It will probably rain. It probably won't rain.

× It might to rain. ✓ It might rain.

Decision now = will (The phone's ringing. — I'll answer it.) · Plan made before = going to (I'm going to buy a solar panel next month.)

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Choose the correct answer.

1) Look at the sky! It (will / is going to) rain.
2) I'm not sure, but I (might / will definitely) visit Aswan this winter.
3) I've decided. I (am going to / might) buy a solar panel.
4) The phone's ringing. — I (will / am going to) answer it.
5) Prices (probably won't / won't probably) go down.
6) She (may not / won't may) come today.

Exercise 2 · Complete with the present simple or will.

1) When I ___ (get) home, I ___ (call) you.
2) We ___ (not leave) until the rain ___ (stop).
3) As soon as she ___ (finish) university, she ___ (look) for a job.
4) I ___ (switch off) the air conditioner before I ___ (go) out.
5) If you ___ (recycle) paper, you ___ (save) trees.
6) After the summer ___ (end), the weather ___ (get) cooler.

2) It might to rain tomorrow.
3) She won't probably come.

1) سأتصل بك بمجرد أن أصل.
2) ربما لا تمطر غدًا.
3) على الأرجح ستصبح المدن أكثر حرارة.
4) سأتوقف عن استخدام الأكياس البلاستيكية.

Write & Speak — “Our environment in 2050”: write 120–150 words. Say what will probably happen, what might happen and what you are going to do to help. Use at least two time clauses (when, as soon as, until). Then give your predictions aloud in one minute.

Example: I think the world will be very different in 2050. Summers will probably be longer and hotter, and in Egypt we might have more heatwaves and water problems. Sea levels may rise, so some parts of Alexandria and the Delta might be in danger. I doubt that people will stop using cars, but most cars will probably be electric. Solar energy is likely to become much cheaper, because we have so much sun. I'm going to do small things to help. First, I'm going to stop buying bottled water and carry my own bottle. When I go shopping, I'll take a cloth bag. I'll switch off the lights and the air conditioner as soon as I leave a room. Things won't change until everyone helps, but I believe that small changes can make a big difference.

Grammar of the week

must = I'm sure it's true · can't = I'm sure it's NOT true · might / could / may = it's possibly true.

modal + be: He must be tired. · modal + be + -ing (now): She might be driving.

How sure?	Modal	Example
100% yes	must	The lights are on. They must be at home.
about 50%	might / could / may	He isn't answering. He might be asleep.
100% no	can't	That can't be Ali. He's in Aswan this week.

عندما تستنتج شيئًا من الدليل الذي أمامك: «أكيد / لا بد» = must، و«مستحيل يكون» = can't، و«ربما» = might / could / may.
الخطأ الشائع أن يقول المتعلم ✗ He mustn't be at home للمعنى «مستحيل يكون في البيت»؛ لكن mustn't معناها «ممنوع».
الصحيح: ✓ He can't be at home. ولا تضع to بعد ✗ It must to be expensive: must.

× He mustn't be at home — the lights are off. ✓ He can't be at home.

× It must to be new. ✓ It must be new.

For actions happening now use be + -ing: Listen! She must be practising the piano.

Example: I use technology all day. I check my phone as soon as I wake up, and I work on a laptop from nine to five. I also use my tablet to watch videos and to have video calls with my sister, who lives in Dubai. Technology makes my life easier, but it also causes problems. Last month my laptop crashed and I lost some important files because I hadn't backed them up. Now I back up everything every Friday. Sometimes the Wi-Fi at home is very slow in the evening. It might be because everyone in the building is online at the same time. My screen time is about six hours a day, and my eyes are always tired, so I must be spending too much time in front of screens. I'm going to switch off my phone an hour before bed.

Grammar of the week

If + past simple, would / wouldn't + verb = an imaginary or unlikely situation now or in the future.

If I were you, I'd... = giving advice.

if-clause (past simple)	main clause (would + verb)
If I had more money,	I would travel more.
If she didn't work so hard,	she wouldn't be so tired.
If I were you,	I'd talk to the manager.

First conditional (real, possible)	Second conditional (imaginary)
If it rains tomorrow, I'll stay at home.	If I lived in London, I'd visit the museums every week. (I don't live there.)

«لو» في العربية تجعل كثيرًا من المتعلمين يقولون ✗ If I would have money أو ✗ If I will have money. القاعدة: بعد if نستخدم الماضي البسيط (had, lived, won) — والمعنى ليس ماضيًا بل خيالي الآن — و would في الجملة الأخرى فقط. وللنصيحة نقول دائمًا If I were you (حتى مع I). قارن: الشرط الأول (If it rains, I'll stay home) = شيء ممكن فعلًا، والشرط الثاني (If I lived in London, I'd...) = شيء غير حقيقي.

× If I would have money, I would buy a car. ✓ If I had money, I would buy a car.

For advice say If I were you (not If I was you).

'd = would: I'd, she'd, we'd. could = would be able to: If I had time, I could help you.

The if-clause can come first (with a comma) or second (no comma): I'd buy it if it were cheaper.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Complete with the second conditional.

1) If I ___ (have) more time, I ___ (learn) to cook.
2) She ___ (buy) that dress if it ___ (be) cheaper.
3) If we ___ (live) in Alexandria, we ___ (go) to the beach every weekend.
4) What ___ you ___ (do) if you ___ (find) a wallet in the street?
5) If he ___ (not spend) so much, he ___ (can) save up.
6) I ___ (not borrow) money if I ___ (not need) it.

Exercise 2 · First or second conditional? Choose the correct answer.

1) If it (rains / rained) tomorrow, we'll stay at home.
2) If you (pay / paid) by card, you'll get a 10% discount.
3) If I (am / were) a millionaire, I'd help poor families.
4) If she (gets / got) the job, she will move to Cairo.
5) If I knew the answer, I (will / would) tell you.
6) If we had a garden, we (would grow / will grow) our own vegetables.

Exercise 3 · Give advice with "If I were you, I'd...".

1) My phone is very old. (buy a new one)
2) I always run out of money at the end of the month. (make a budget)
3) This jacket is too expensive. (wait for the sales)
4) My new shoes are too small. (take them back)
5) I owe my brother a lot of money. (pay him back soon)

Exercise 4 · Translate into English.

2) لو كان معي مال كافٍ، لسافرت حول العالم.
3) لا أستطيع تحمّل تكلفة هذا الهاتف.
4) هل يمكنني استرداد المال؟

Write & Speak — "If I won a million pounds...": write 120–150 words. What would you buy, who would you help, and what wouldn't you change? Finish with one piece of money advice for a friend (If I were you, I'd...). Then ask three people "What would you do if you won a million pounds?"

Example: If I won a million pounds, the first thing I would do is pay back the money I owe my brother. Then I would buy a small flat for my parents in Sheikh Zayed, because they have lived in a rented flat all their lives. I wouldn't buy an expensive car, because I think it's a waste of money in Cairo traffic. If I had more money than I needed, I would help my neighbours' children with their school fees. I would also travel. I'd love to visit Japan and see Tokyo. However, I wouldn't stop working. If I didn't work, I would get bored very quickly. My friend Karim always runs out of money before the end of the month. Karim, if I were you, I'd make a budget, shop around before buying anything and cut down on eating out.

Grammar of the week

Passive = be + past participle (made, built, celebrated). We use it when the action is more important than the person who does it, or when we don't know who did it.

Present: am / is / are + past participle · Past: was / were + past participle · by + the doer (only if it is important).

Active	Passive
People make koshari with rice.	Koshari is made with rice.
They speak Arabic in Egypt.	Arabic is spoken in Egypt.
Howard Carter discovered the tomb in 1922.	The tomb was discovered (by Howard Carter) in 1922.

	Present simple passive	Past simple passive
Positive	It is made. They are sold.	It was built. They were found.
Negative	It isn't made. They aren't sold.	It wasn't built. They weren't found.
Question	Is it made...? Where are they sold?	When was it built? Were they found...?

المبني للمجهول في العربية (بُني، يُصنع، اكتُشف) = be + التصريف الثالث. أشهر خطأين: حذف الفعل be (✗ The pyramids built years ago 4,500) أو استخدام التصريف الثاني (✗ It was builded / It was wrote). تذكّر: is / are للمضارع، و was / were للماضي، ثم التصريف الثالث دائمًا.

× The museum opened by the president. ✓ The museum was opened by the president.

made of = you can still see the material (made of wood) · made from = the material changes (cheese is made from milk).

Use by only when the doer is important: This novel was written by Naguib Mahfouz.

Write & Speak — Write 120–150 words: a short guide to an Egyptian tradition or celebration for a foreign visitor. Use at least five passive verbs (is celebrated, is made, are sold, was started…). Then record it as if you were a tour guide.

Example: Ramadan is one of the most special times of the year in Egypt. It is celebrated by millions of people across the country. During the holy month, Muslims don't eat or drink from dawn until sunset. The streets are decorated with colourful lights, and traditional lanterns, called fawanees, are sold everywhere. They are often given to children as presents. The fast is broken at sunset with dates and water, and then a big family meal is served. Popular dishes like stuffed vine leaves and kunafa are made at home or bought from famous shops. In the past, people were woken up for suhoor by a man called the mesaharaty, who walked through the streets with a drum. This custom is still followed in some neighbourhoods today. If you visit Egypt in Ramadan, you will probably be invited to iftar by people you have just met!

Grammar of the week

When we report what someone said, the verb usually goes one step back into the past:

am / is → was · do → did · did / have done → had done · will → would · can → could.

say something · tell SOMEONE something.

Direct speech	Reported speech
“I am tired.”	He said (that) he was tired.
“I'm working.”	She said she was working.
“I have finished.”	He said he had finished.
“I saw Ali.”	She said she had seen Ali.
“I will call you.”	He said he would call me.
“I can help.”	She said she could help.

say + (that)	tell + person + (that)
He said (that) he was busy. × He said me...	He told me (that) he was busy. × He told that...

في العربية نقول «قال لي» فيكتب المتعلمون ✗ He said me. لكن say لا يأتي بعده الشخص مباشرة، أما tell فلا بد أن يأتي بعده الشخص: ✓ He told me (that) he was tired. ✗ He told that... وعند نقل الكلام نرجع بالزمن خطوة للماضي ونغيّر الضمائر: “I am busy” → She said she was busy.

Time and place words change: today → that day · tomorrow → the next day · yesterday → the day before · here → there.

that is optional: She said (that) she was hungry.

If something is still true, you can keep the present: He said he lives in Giza.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Complete with said or told.

1) She ___ me she was busy.
2) They ___ us they were moving to Aswan.
3) He ___ that he liked the film.

Write & Speak — Write 120–150 words: tell the story of a phone call or conversation with a friend or relative — good news, an argument or a secret. Report at least six things people said (said that..., told me that..., explained that...). Then tell the story aloud to someone at home.

Example: Last week my best friend Hana called me late at night. She told me that she had some big news. At first I thought something bad had happened, but she said that she was getting engaged! She explained that she had met Youssef at work two years earlier and that they had been friends for a long time. I told her that I was really happy for her. Then she said that the engagement party would be in Alexandria in December and that she needed my help to choose a dress. Hana admitted that she was a bit nervous because Youssef's family was very big. I told her that she didn't need to worry, because everyone loved her. Before we said goodbye, she said she couldn't wait to see me. I promised that I would always support her.

Example: Hi Salma, I had my interview at the bank yesterday! I was really nervous, but I think it went well. There were two interviewers, a man and a woman. First they asked me to tell them about myself. Then the woman asked me why I wanted to work for their bank and what my strengths were. I said that I was hard-working and very organised. The man asked me if I had any experience with customers, so I told them about my part-time job in a phone shop. They also asked me where I saw myself in five years. That was a difficult question! At the end, they told me to send copies of my certificates by email, and they asked whether I could start in January. They said they would call me next week. Fingers crossed! Love, Mona who = people · which = things · whose = possession (his / her / their) · where = places · that = people or things (defining clauses only).

Defining clause (no commas) = tells us WHICH person or thing. Non-defining clause (with commas) = adds extra information.

Word	Use	Example
who	people	The man who called you is my uncle.
which	things	The course which I took was online.
whose	possession	That's the girl whose brother is a pilot.
where	places	This is the school where I studied.
that	people or things (no commas)	The book that you lent me is great.

Defining (no commas)	Non-defining (commas)
The students who studied hard passed. (only those students)	My students, who studied hard, all passed. (extra information about all my students)
I need a book which explains grammar clearly.	This book, which my teacher gave me, is very useful.

في العربية نقول «المعلم الذي أحبّه» بضمير في آخر الجملة، فيكتب المتعلمون ✗ The teacher who I like him. في الإنجليزية لا نكرّر الضمير: ✓ The teacher who I like. و whose = «الذي + ـه / ـها»: the student whose = الطالب الذي أبوه طبيب father is a doctor. والجملة بين فاصلتين (non-defining) معلومة إضافية لو حذفناها تبقى الجملة مفهومة، ولا نستخدم فيها that أبدًا.

× The teacher who I like her is Mrs Mona. ✓ The teacher who I like is Mrs Mona.

× My father, that is a teacher, ... ✓ My father, who is a teacher, ...

whose ≠ who's (who's = who is): the man whose car… / the man who's waiting…

In defining clauses you can leave out who / which / that when it is the object: The course (that) I took was great.

Exercises

Exercise 1 · Complete with who, which, whose or where.

1) This is the school ___ I studied for twelve years.
2) The girl ___ mother is a lecturer wants to study medicine.
3) The course, ___ lasts six months, starts in March.
4) Mr Hany, ___ teaches us maths, is very patient.
5) I've lost the book ___ you lent me.
6) He's the student ___ won the scholarship.

Exercise 2 · Join the sentences. Use a non-defining relative clause (with commas).

1) My sister is a doctor. She lives in Alexandria.
2) Al-Azhar University is in Cairo. It is over 1,000 years old.
3) Karim failed the exam. His father is a teacher.
4) Aswan is in the south of Egypt. My grandparents live there.
5) This laptop was a present. I use it for my online course.

Exercise 3 · Correct the mistake.

2) My uncle, that is an engineer, lives in Giza.

2) أخي، الذي يعمل في دبي، سيزورنا الشهر القادم.
3) أعرف طالبًا أبوه وزير.
4) فاتني كثير من المحاضرات فتأخرت عن زملائي.

Write & Speak — “The teacher who changed my life” or “My school days”: write 120–150 words. Use at least five relative clauses, including whose and at least one with commas. Then read it aloud and pause a little at each comma.

Example: The teacher who changed my life was Mr Adel, who taught us English at secondary school in Tanta. He was a tall, quiet man whose lessons were never boring. Before I met him, English was the subject which I hated most. I couldn't concentrate, and I was falling behind my classmates. Mr Adel, who had studied in London, used songs and short stories instead of making us memorise long lists of words. I still remember the small classroom where we acted out scenes from plays. He also taught us how to look up new words and guess their meaning. When I failed a test, he didn't shout at me. He gave me extra exercises, which helped me catch up. Thanks to him, I got a high mark in my final exam and decided to study languages at university. Today I'm a translator, and I still keep in touch with him.

Grammar of the week

used to + verb = a past habit that is not true now (I used to smoke).

be used to + -ing / noun = something is normal for me (I'm used to working at night).

get used to + -ing / noun = something is becoming normal for me (I'm getting used to my new diet).

Form	Meaning	Example
used to + verb	كان يفعل (عادة في الماضي، ليس الآن)	I used to stay up late. (I don't now.)
be used to + -ing / noun	معتاد على (شيء طبيعي بالنسبة لي)	I'm used to working at night. She's used to the heat.
get used to + -ing / noun	يتعوّد على (يصبح طبيعيًا تدريجيًا)	I'm getting used to my new diet. You'll get used to it.

ثلاثة تعبيرات متشابهة في الشكل ومختلفة في المعنى: used to + فعل = «كنت أفعل زمان»، و be used to = «معتاد على»، و get used to = «يتعوّد على». الخطأ الشائع: I'm used to wake up early ✗. هنا to حرف جر مثل «على»، فيأتي بعدها الفعل بـ -ing أو اسم: I'm used to waking up early ✓. ولا تقل I use to go ✗ للمضارع؛ قل I usually go.

× I'm used to wake up early. ✓ I'm used to waking up early.

× I use to go to the gym every day. ✓ I usually go to the gym every day.

get used to works in every tense: I got used to it · I'm getting used to it · I'll get used to it.

Negative and question of used to: I didn't use to… · Did you use to…?

Example: Two years ago my lifestyle was very unhealthy. I used to stay up until two in the morning watching series, and I used to skip breakfast because I was always late for work. I drank fizzy drinks every day and I didn't use to do any exercise. I put on twelve kilos and I felt tired all the time. After a check-up, my doctor told me that my blood pressure was high. That was a shock, so I decided to change. I cut out fizzy drinks and took up walking. At first it was really hard to get used to going to bed at eleven, and I missed the sugar in my tea. But slowly I got used to it. Now I'm used to waking up early and walking along the Nile for forty minutes before work. I have much more energy and I've lost eight kilos.

Example: Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing about my stay at your hotel in Hurghada from 3rd to 7th August. Unfortunately, there were several problems. When we arrived, our room was not ready, so we waited at reception for two hours. I had booked a room with a sea view, but we were given a noisy room above the kitchen. On the second day, the air conditioner was out of order, and nobody came to fix it until the next evening. The receptionist was polite, but she said that the hotel was full and that she couldn't move us. Could you tell me why my reservation was not checked before we arrived? I would also like to know if I can get a partial refund. Finally, I was wondering if you could offer us a discount on a future stay. I look forward to hearing from you. Yours faithfully, Omar Hassan so + adjective (so hot) · such + a / an + adjective + noun (such a hot day) · so / such ... that = the result.

too + adjective + to (too hot to walk) · adjective + enough + to (old enough to drive).

although + a clause · however, + a new sentence · because + a clause · because of + a noun.

so	such
so + adjective: The exam was so difficult.	such + a / an + adjective + noun: It was such a difficult exam.
so ... that: He spoke so fast that I didn't understand.	such ... that: It was such a hot day that we stayed inside.
so + adverb: She drives so carefully.	such + plural / uncountable noun: such kind people · such good weather

Linker	Followed by	Example
although	a clause (subject + verb)	Although it was late, we went out.
however	a new sentence + comma	It was late. However, we went out.
because	a clause	We stayed in because it was raining.
because of	a noun	We stayed in because of the rain.
so	the result	It was raining, so we stayed in.

في العربية نقول «على الرغم من أن... إلا أن...» فيستخدم المتعلمون كلمتين للربط: ✗ Although it was expensive, but I bought it. في الإنجليزية كلمة واحدة فقط تكفي: ✓ Although it was expensive, I bought it. وبعد because of يأتي اسم فقط (because of the rain)، وبعد because جملة كاملة (because it was raining). و such تأتي مع اسم (such a nice day)، و so مع صفة وحدها (so nice).

× Although it was expensive, but I bought it. ✓ Although it was expensive, I bought it.

× because of it was raining ✓ because of the rain / because it was raining

× It was so a nice day. ✓ It was such a nice day. / The day was so nice.

× He isn't enough old to drive. ✓ He isn't old enough to drive. · It's too hot to walk (= we can't walk).

5) They are ___ good friends.
6) He drives ___ fast that I'm scared.

Exercise 2 · Choose the correct answer.

1) (Although / However) it was raining, we went to the beach.
2) The flat is small. (Although / However), it's in a great area.
3) The match was cancelled (because / because of) the bad weather.

Write & Speak — Write 120–150 words: an opinion paragraph — "Life in 2050 will be better than life today." Do you agree? Give reasons for and against, and use although, however, because of, so … that and such … that. Then give your opinion aloud in two minutes, as if you were speaking in a debate.

Example: In my opinion, life in 2050 will be better than life today, although there will also be some serious problems. On the one hand, technology is developing so quickly that robots will probably do many difficult and dangerous jobs. Driverless cars might make our roads safer, and doctors will be able to cure diseases which kill millions of people today. Online courses will make education cheaper, so more young people in villages will be able to get a degree. On the other hand, the population is increasing, and because of climate change, summers in Egypt may become too hot to bear. However, I'm convinced that people will find solutions. Thirty years ago, nobody could imagine a smartphone. Today it is such a normal part of life that we can't live without it. To be honest, I'm really looking forward to the future.
